

August 2009

*Seppo Aaltonen,
Director, Strategy Planning and Dialogue
Nokia*

Seppo Aaltonen heads the Strategy Planning and Dialogue team in Nokia's Corporate Strategy department. The Strategy planning and Dialogue team is responsible for running Nokia's annual strategy planning and follow up process as well as for engaging employees and other key stakeholders in a dialogue about Nokia's strategy.

Prior to his current position in Corporate Strategy Seppo worked for Nokia in New York during 2005-2008 as a Director of Product Collaboration responsible for managing device roadmap and technology collaboration (4G LTE) with Verizon Wireless.

Earlier in his career at Nokia Seppo has headed Nokia's Device Technology Marketing during 2002-2005 as well worked in the global Strategy and Business development of Nokia Mobile Phones 2000-2002.

Before joining Nokia in year 2000 he worked as management consultant in McKinsey & Company.

Seppo holds a Master of Science (Technology) from the Helsinki University of Technology. He has also attended executive trainings at Columbia Business School and Harvard.